In 1971, Schwab took $6,000 in seed money and transformed the WEF from a humble gathering of economists into the world's most exclusive club for global elites.

The WEF started as a “not-for-profit” organization but now rakes in a staggering $390 million, annually.

A new book from investigative journalist Seamus Bruner has shone a light on the WEF's agenda and how Schwab has positioned himself as a global puppeteer.

Bruner has led the teams whose findings sparked multiple FBI investigations and congressional probes into the Clintons and the Bidens.

Now he is exposing the billionaires who control the levers of power that dominate every aspect of your life.

The book, “Controligarchs: Exposing the Billionaire Class, Their Secret Deals, and the Globalist Plot to Dominate Your Life,” follows the money beyond the politicians in the Washington D.C. swamp and goes straight to the top: Davos.

It is in this tiny Alpine town in Switzerland that the jet-setting billionaires and shadowy bureaucrats are plotting out the next decade of our lives.

The market capitalization of WEF's top members—corporate behemoths like Apple, Microsoft, Amazon, Meta, Google, Comcast, and Pfizer—tops $10 trillion.

Double that if you include $10 trillion asset manager BlackRock.

BlackRock's founder and CEO Larry Fink is a WEF board member.

So, with more than $20 trillion—greater than the GDP of every nation in the world except that of the United States—sloshing around in its member coffers, it is easy to grasp why the WEF can exert extraordinary influence.

But WEF's ongoing dominance over world governments has achieved much more than mere money ever could.

The organization's economic power achieves political and social control.

The many ways in which the WEF is plotting to control society's future are bone-chilling.

Key items on the agenda include the globalist takeover of not just finance, but also energy, food, health, personal information, and technology.

Controligarchs pulls back the curtain and comprehensively reveals the dystopian systems and tactics that the WEF is ratcheting up.

Key components of the WEF's agenda include:

Schwab's infamous "Great Reset" declaration amid COVID-19 demonstrated that the WEF was intent on using the pandemic to influence the present and command the future.

With control over critical industries and infrastructure, the WEF and its unelected globalist allies such as the United Nations (UN), the World Bank, and the World Health Organization (WHO) will have unprecedented control over every aspect of our lives.

These are not plans for a distant future, however, as the WEF's campaign is already underway.

The Bank of International Settlements, which is the central banker for the central banks, is working hard on rolling out central bank digital currencies (CBDCs).

According to BIS chairman Agustin Carstens, CBDCs offer "total control" over the money supply and the public, as Slay News reported.

With a CBDC, the globalist financial system could financially cancel (or "de-bank") an individual, a corporation, a whole town, or even an entire country.

The WEF proclaims there has been "exponential growth" in CBDC exploration.

Last month, the Atlantic Council confirmed the “momentum behind” CBDCs “remained strong” throughout 2023.

Since there is no crisis lending itself to CBDC urgency, they are being touted for their convenience.

Both the WEF and BlackRock’s Larry Fink have touted the fact that migrants can cut their cross-border transaction times when sending money back to their home countries.

When Schwab announced the “Great Reset,” he told the world that, after everyone got vaccinated, the lockdowns would end and the world would rebuild in a “greener” way.

It was not obvious what the pandemic had to do with climate change then.

The relationship has now become clear, however.

The concept of a “climate lockdown” is not farfetched.

In California, Democrat Gov. Gavin Newsom, who is closely aligned with the WEF, has lectured his constituents that their behavior must change and their comfort and freedom must be sacrificed for “the greater good.”

Newsom’s methods include limiting access to home thermostats, curtailing long-distance travel, and, soon, eliminating gas vehicles and stoves.

The alleged threat of “climate change” has also allowed governments around the world to upend long-established methods of agriculture by banning traditional fertilizers and flatulating protein sources like cattle.

WEF-backed restrictions are regulating farmers out of existence.

To “solve” the self-manufactured, forthcoming global food shortage, WEF members and allies like Bayer-Monsanto, Beyond Meats and Impossible Foods, and innovative insect-based protein startups, have entered the fold.

The controligarchs heavily investing in this sector are Bill Gates, Jeff Bezos, Mark Zuckerberg, and Virgin Galactic's Richard Branson.

Just last month, WEF partners, including the UN and the Gates Foundation, hosted an event titled "50-in-1" in which allies pledged to roll out digital ID systems across 50 countries within five years.

Why? Digital IDs linked to digital medical records stored on your cell phone are an incredibly effective way to track your vaccination status.

Multiple WEF partners including Bill Gates have had a mandatory digital ID system in the works for more than a decade.

But COVID-19 vaccine passports demonstrated how digital IDs can be used to ruthlessly enforce citizen compliance.

In fact, the European Union's WEF-linked digital ID is an expansion of the system developed for Europe's vaccine passport.

At a 2010 event sponsored by the UN, Gates said that "vaccines are going to be the key," because "you could register every birth on the cell phone, get fingerprints, get a location, then you could take these systems where you go around and make sure the immunization happens," thereby running healthcare "in a more effective way."

The WEF often sugarcoats the dystopian plans its partners are shaping.

However, Controligarchs sifted through hundreds of hours of forgotten videos and thousands of pages—many of which have been scrubbed from the internet—to reveal that WEF visionaries like Yuval Noah Harari boldly tout innovations like brain microchips, happy pill-style complacency drugs, and eugenics-style gene editing.

Make no mistake, digital IDs plus CBDCs equals a de facto social credit score.

Harari, meanwhile, believes that the entire human body can and will be "hacked."

Harari has remarked that COVID-19 was “critical” because it convinced people to “accept” and “legitimize total biometric surveillance.”

But simply monitoring everyone is not enough.

In the future, “we need to monitor what’s happening under their skin.”

Subdermal microchips are only the beginning as the entire human body is the canvas for bizarre globalist experimentation and centralized rule.

For all history, “death was the great equalizer,” Harari continued.

Yet the so-called Fourth Industrial Revolution proposed by Schwab will give birth to a new caste system in which poor people still die off.

The world’s wealthy elites, meanwhile, “in addition to all the other things they get, also get an exemption from death,” Harari gloats.

Elites then will be able to purchase immortality through biotechnological upgrades—to transcend humanism itself.

These are just a few of the shocking, freedom-crushing plans the WEF has begun to roll out.

Other sectors subject to WEF-aligned takeover include housing in “15-minute cities,” education through AI advancing “social-emotional learning,” the information flow via the crackdown on so-called “disinformation,” and more.
